

Sept. 19, 2011

Dear Third Grade Parents,

Congratulations! We have made it into our third week of school. All of the students seem to have settled into the routine of things. A Bible quiz is scheduled for Thursday. Bible notes are attached to this newsletter. Our Free Choice book report will be due on October 18th. Students are allowed to choose any chapter book. The book must be approved by me by Monday, September 26th. Attached are the instructions and book report form entitled, "Sandwich Book Report".

Our first field trip is scheduled for October 12th to the Aquarium of the Pacific in Long Beach. Students must arrive at 8:30 a.m. with a sack lunch. We will be leaving promptly at 8:45 a.m.

Bible- This week we will be looking at the creation of man, writing letters to God, and reviewing for our Bible quiz. They should know what is in and isn't in Heaven and the days of creation. Bible Quiz Thursday. Bible Verse due Friday (fill-in)

Language-Rules for Capitalization; Test on Friday

Math-Place value through thousands; Timed tests through 10 in addition and subtraction

Reading- We will be reading If Skies Be Blue in our reading groups.

Spelling- We will be working on lesson two. Test Friday

Science- We will be discussing ocean animals.

Spanish- Review basic greetings, review asking personal information, and introduce the nuclear family.

Music- Songs about ocean animals.

P.E. – Students will be introduced to PE and learn rules and expectations. Students will learn about classroom freezing signals.

Computers-Students will receive their assigned computer area. They will familiarize themselves with the computer. They will also go over expectations and rules. We will be starting on a website, "Oceans for Youth"

Bible Verse- "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" Roman 3:23
