

Fifth Grade Weekly Newsletter
September 26-September 30
Week 4

Welcome to Week 4! We have been talking in class about being responsible and now is the time to put our talk into action!

- No late work will be accepted! (The only exception is if you have been sick—See the school handbook)
- Students will NOT be allowed to come back into Room L after school unless I am still here (Please don't ask Mrs. Kaufman or Mrs. Bassler to let you in!).

Testimonies!! I need your testimonies about GHB and what you love about it for an upcoming marketing campaign for Granada Hills Christian School. Please email them to me by October 4 (P.S. they are worth 8 tickets for your student!! ☺)

Our Mixed Bag Designs sale has begun and will end on September 30. 45% of the money raised will go toward our Catalina trip. The PTF has graciously given each student $50 toward our Catalina Island trip. The cost is now $190 per student.

This week you will learn:

- how to about the first Americans and the first Californians
- How the least in a family can become the most important

To Do List:

1. Dry Erase Markers

Who was I?

I was a pirate in honor of International Talk Like a Pirate Day which was September 19 and a band aid in honor of the invention of the band aid on September 22, 1920.

Who can tell me...?

For 2 tickets, be the first person to tell me:

What (who) are in the two pictures/phrase on this page and why are the pictures significant?

Seasons

By Devin Marton

Spring is when the bells ring.
The flowers pop up and sing.

Summer is when you play in the cool pool.
Summer is hot and sticky.

Autumn is when the leaves fall
and you leave for vacation on Thanksgiving.

Winter is cold so stay bold in the warmth.
You also should watch if a winter storm.
