

Fifth Grade Weekly Newsletter
October 31–November 4
Week 9

THANK YOU! I appreciate your thoughtful cards and words, the cake, beautiful necklace and gifts in honor of my birthday.

Please bring in your items for our Thanksgiving and Christmas projects! This year, 5th grade students will be providing bags of potatoes. Please bring 10 lb bags by November 17.

Your Operation Christmas Child boxes will be due November 18. I know that seems far off, but if you start picking up little things now, your box will be filled before you know it! Boxes are available in the office.

Begin gathering your costume for our program—lifeguards need a white t-shirt and red shorts, everyone needs flip-flops or sandals and swim cover ups or board shorts. (Please save November 30 at 7 pm and/or December 2 at 9 am so you can attend!)

This week you will learn:

- About our friends to the North—The Canadians
- about finding God's purpose for our lives

To Do List:

1. Dry Erase Markers
2. Make sure your books are covered and you have all of the school supplies you need

Who was I?

Rhyme Time

By Nona Pittman

School is fun!

I love to play and run.

Recess is my favorite time.

I'm sorry I'm trying to rhyme.

I also like lunch but we are a big bunch.

I love 4 square and I like to do my own hair.

At lunch I love to eat.

Every day I have a treat.

That is all for now.

But wait!

Don't have a cow.

Just wait till another time.

To hear a great rhyme.

The Seasons

It starts out as winter when it's covered in snow,

but when it turns spring the plants start to grow.

When it is summer it's a hot sunny day;

you can even hang out at the Monterey Bay.

When it turns fall there are pumpkins and ghosts,

even we know it's all just a hoax.
